2022 Central Connections Directories

Directories have been mailed to all active Santel telephone customers. If you did not receive one, or if you wish to have an extra, they can be picked up from these area businesses after November 7th: the banks in Artesian, Letcher, Mt Vernon, Parkston, Tripp and Wolsey; the City offices in Ethan, Tripp and Parkston; the Country Pumper of Forestburg; Larson Grocery in Fedora; or the Santel office in Woonsocket.

This year's cover photo contest was won by Kristina Sprik of Platte. Thank you to everyone who submitted photos and watch for the next contest in late 2023!

Santel proudly supports all of our local schools. Catch all the action on Santel TV channels 90 - 91 and 101 - 108.

Santel Digital TV Lets You Watch TV Everywhere

You lead a busy life...so take Santel Digital TV wherever you go. All Santel TV subscribers are automatically eligible for watchTVeverywhere (WTVU)...an online streaming service that allows you to see most of your favorite shows from anywhere. See the list of participating networks at left.

To register, go to www.wtve.net and select Santel from the dropdown provider list. For the first time only, choose Register where you'll need to provide your Santel account number and your last name as they appear on your Santel monthly bill. You'll also enter your email and password which will become your login credentials. Once you've confirmed your email address and successfully set up your account, you will then be able to download your favorite TV apps (such as Fox News or NFL) and see the same content as you would via the browser.

Your account will only be authorized to view the channels to which you subscribe. CBS and Fox do not participate in this program and some live sporting events also may not be shown. We continue to add programming as it becomes available such as our recent addition of Starz/Encore.
